

Hear what others are saying about In Buona Salute Magazine™:

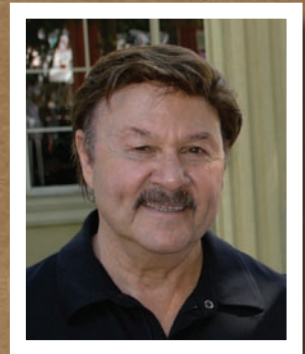

"I've always had a great sense of pride in my Italian-American heritage. I imagine much of it comes from the fact that we embrace with so much passion the attributes of family, food and fun. I've found that In Buona Salute Magazine™ is a publication that understands that passion, and helps celebrate those, and all of the other fine attributes of Italian culture."

Joe Mantegna, Actor & National Spokesperson for Order Sons of Italy

"In Buona Salute Magazine™ has brought a new sense of pride and resurgence to the Italian American community of northern California. It represents a valuable tool to communicate and celebrate our heritage."

Bill Cerruti, Italian Center of Northern California

"Our Board agreed that In Buona Salute Magazine™ has contributed to the Italian American culture at large, and has supported our Club events by listing them in the Cal-Zone section of the magazine. We have had a measurable increase in event attendance and enhanced our bottom line."

Jim Toland, San Francisco Italian Athletic Club
